Master of Education: Teaching and Technology

Program Profile

Program Mission

MED T&T Program Mission:

The MED T&T Program realizes that technology and media are driving a revolution in learning, teaching, and training in both the traditional classroom and the corporate learning center. The mission of the MED T&T Program is to provide educators, professional developers, and corporate trainers with the conceptual basis and tools necessary to effectively integrate technology into the learning environment with the goal of enhancing learning opportunities for our students and improving our effectiveness as educators/trainers. Students completing the program will have developed the skills necessary to become Google Certified Educators Level 1 and Level 2.

School of Education Mission:

Our mission is to provide aspiring educators a student-centered learning environment valuing inclusion, creativity, and intellectual inquiry. We strive as an Educator Preparation Program to immerse students in a learning environment focused on theory, knowledge, experience, and reflection. We believe that student-centered coursework, application of learning in educational settings, group-based activity, and the ability to reflect on one's practice are the essential activities for developing students into the kind of high-quality teachers and administrators needed to boost student achievement in our state and elsewhere.

School of Education Description:

William Woods University is located in Fulton, Missouri and has been educating future educators in Callaway County and Mid-Missouri since 1914. The School of Education offers bachelors of science degrees in physical education, special education, secondary education, elementary education, art education, and middle school education. The School of Education offers the required coursework for 13 initial teacher licensure programs as well as two add-on certifications in early childhood education (undergraduate level) and special reading (graduate level). The undergraduate programs offered in Fulton provides students the necessary coursework to become CPI and Google certified. Additionally, the undergraduate degree programs have a close partnership with Fulton Public Schools, as evidenced by the Grow Your Own program. Graduate degree programs in educational leadership leads students to one of three advanced certifications including K12 school leader, superintendent, and special education director. Undergraduate coursework is offered on the main campus, and all graduate coursework is offered online. Graduate degrees are offered in the areas of teaching and technology, STEM education, athletic administration, educational leadership, curriculum and instruction, curriculum leadership, adult learning, and reading instruction.

School of Education Conceptual Framework:

William Woods University officially became a college in 1914. Our focus for the next fifty years was on training teachers, a profession built on compassion and the personal commitment to help others grow — values that we have held onto since the beginning. One can still see these values, stronger than ever, at work among our faculty and students today. Our Education graduates continue to be outstanding teachers and leaders in the Missouri school system and beyond.

The William Woods University Professional Education Unit has refined its Conceptual Framework since 1999. Members of the Professional Education Unit who participated at that time were Education faculty and Secondary Area Academic Faculty. The School of Education refined the 1999 Conceptual Framework during Fall 2004 by expanding explanations of the unit's guiding principles. The precursor document was developed during the 2000-2001 academic year. During both processes, the Unit's faculty (that included general education faculty, program methods faculty, and graduate faculty) provided guidance and input for its content and approval of the final forms.

University Mission Statement: William Woods University promotes a student-centered learning environment valuing inclusion, creativity, and intellectual inquiry. Focused on professions-oriented education, we prepare learners for success.

School of Education Mission Statement and Conceptual Framework: The foundations for the William Woods University teacher, school leader, and district leader mission and conceptual framework are that all educators must promote a student-centered learning environment valuing inclusion, creativity, and intellectual inquiry. Our daily mission as an Educator Preparation Program is to immerse students in a learning environment focused on theory, knowledge, experience, and reflection. We believe that student-centered coursework, application of learning in educational settings, group-based activity, and the ability to reflect on one's practice are the essential activities for developing students into the kind of high-quality teacher needed to boost student achievement in our state and elsewhere. We believe that all K12 students, aspiring teachers, and aspiring educational leaders deserve effective and caring educators who are knowledgeable in content, management, interpersonal skills, and the teaching/learning process. The conceptual framework for teacher and educational leader preparation is articulated and defined by appropriate state and national preparation standards given that both the William Woods University and subsequently the Educator Preparation Program missions center upon professions-oriented preparation.

The mission of William Woods University and the Education Unit's Conceptual Framework are articulated and shared regularly among the professional education community and its stakeholders. Professional Standards for Educational Leaders, Missouri Leader Development Standards, and Missouri Teaching Standards are articulated and aligned in the syllabi with student learning objectives throughout graduate and undergraduate courses. Students demonstrate their competencies of these standards through field experience evaluations, creating appropriate artifacts, reflection activities, and self-guided inquiry.

Reflection on Demographic Data

Program goals for student retention, persistence and degree completion are? What do the persistence numbers mean to the faculty in the program? Are your persistence numbers what you expected? If not, how could the numbers be improved? What is the optimal enrollment for the program?

The number of incoming students remains very low. Enrollment has shown a decline of 57.6%, but this is in line with the overall graduate enrollment decline at the University of 47.6%. The University has embarked upon a new initiative to attempt to increase enrollment across all programs. We will know more in the next year or so in terms of the success.

Persistence to graduation has been variable within the program ranging from a low of 50% to a high of 100%. The last calculated graduation rate was 76.5% which is actually 1% higher than the overall graduate college graduation rate.

Changes to Curriculum

Are there any changes made to the curriculum map for this academic year? If so, please describe the program changes made along with the rationale for why and the impact the changes should have on student learning?

Our revised curriculum was finally fully implemented in January of 2020. Since that time only minor corrections and updates have been implemented

Technology changes fairly rapidly so it is a challenge for our curriculum to remain up-to-date. We regularly analyze our curriculum and make minor modifications. Our goal is to review for necessary revisions at least every 2 years.

Budget constraints have limited the ability to conduct major reviews and revisions, but it is hoped that in the coming year we will be able to begin the review process again.

Assessment List

Analysis of the Assessment Process

Describe your assessment process; clearly articulate how the program is using coursework and or assessment day activities for program wide assessment. Note any changes that occurred to that process since the previous year. Discuss what activities were successful at assessment and which ones were not as helpful and why. Please include who met to discuss the changes (unless you are a program of one person) and when you met. – Include a discussion on the process for collection and analysis of program data.

The assessment process appears to be sufficient. Two of the "not met" were because there were 0 students enrolled in the course during the year. The remaining "not met" was likely due to a marking error on the part of the instructor. This will be addressed. The objectives and related assignments are designed to measure if the students have mastered essential program content. The results indicate that they do. Some argue that if the objectives are always met, then the criteria is too low. I would suggest that if the objectives are always met that it means the coursework and objectives and assessments are properly aligned and that the students are mastering the necessary content. Hence, there is no need to change the objective, content, or assessment to simply "make it more difficult".
